PRETTY GIRLS AT SUMMER THEATRE

Casino Season Will Be Opened
To-morrow
Night.

"MAM'SELLE 'AWKINS" BILL

Five Seasons of Successful Presentation in New York.

The Casino, the summer theatre, managed by the Jake Wells Company, is to be thrown open for the season to-morrow night. This will be an announcement pleasing to a great majority of the people who wish to spend a couple of hours in the evening where the breezes are fresh and the surroundings congenial after a hot day in the city. The management is desirous of maintaining the high standard heretofore set by the place and cater to the more appreciative class of people who patronize the houses of entertainment. The management has been successful in getting Richard Carle's brilliant musical success for the opening, "Mam'selle 'Awkins," an attraction which has made an instantaneous and pronounced hit in New York, where it ran for several seasons.

Five Successful Seasons.

At this late day it would be entirely superfluous to either formally present or introduce "Mam'selle 'Awkins" to the amusement reading or theatre-going public. Five successful seasons has been its record. An entire season at the Victoria Theatre, Broadway, New York, which in itself is a guarantee of unusual merit, apropos of which the New York Herald pronounced it, after its initial performance at the above theatre, "an unprecedented success."

The press and public in Boston and Philadelphia corroborated and emphasized the judgment of the metropolis. The company is composed of well-known singers and actors, who have been closely identified with the musical comedy successes of the past seasons, embracing Misses Amy Lee, Carolyn Heustes, Nettie Black (prima donna of the past of the "Isle of Spice" Company), John L. Kerney (leading and principal comedian for the past three seasons of "A Chinese Honey-moon"), Martie O'Neill (comedian with Weber and Fields, and their successors), J. W. Shea (of the "Strollers"), Osborn Clemson (leading baritone of the original "English Dandy" Company), Danny Williams (of the "Buster Brown" Company and leading comedian with same), and last, but not least, the chorus. There are numerous applications for positions in same, which permitted the management to use rare and discriminating good taste in making his selections, and he feels that the public will endorse his judgment.
